

A Premier Regional Lacrosse Recruitment Camp for High School Boys

Dear Boys' Lacrosse Coach:

The Southern Exposure Recruitment Camp is designed to provide the best possible advanced drills and playing experience for the region's most exceptional secondary school players, as recommended by their coaches. Please note: This camp is intended for players who exhibit the potential to compete at the collegiate level.

WHY SOUTHERN EXPOSURE?

- Coaches from Divisions I, II, and III will be invited to attend
- College Admission Seminar for NCAA Recruiting Guidelines for Parents & Players
- High-level, intense practices with advanced drills and game situations
- All coaches are certified teachers with extensive coaching experience at all levels
- Facility offers excellent field conditions, with lights for evening games
- An opportunity to boost your players' confidence level and strengthen their game sense
- Detailed, individual recruiting form for each player
- Recruiting information is provided to all college coaches at the US Lacrosse National Convention, as well as via email
- Excellent VALUE: Cost of only $200.00 per player

The philosophy of the camp is to provide an opportunity for your upcoming sophomores, juniors and seniors to take part in evaluation, recruiting, and exposure to college coaches during an intensive two-day practice session and game experience.

The schedule for this week is as follows:

(The Pavilion Athletic Complex is located at 400 Scottswood Road in Taylors, South Carolina)

Friday, June 26, 2009: Practice session I, 6:15 – 8:45 p.m., Pavilion Athletic Fields

Saturday, June 27, 2009: Practice session II, 9:00 – 11:30 a.m., Pavilion Athletic Fields

College Admissions Information Seminar, 11:45 – 12:30 p.m.

Saturday, June 27, 2009: All-Star Game, 7:30 p.m. (under the lights at the Pavilion Fields)

*Sunday, June 28, 2009: Rain date for All-Star Game

The College Admissions Information Seminar will provide an insightful look at the college admissions process for parents and players, and will also include information on NCAA recruiting rules. These sessions will provide much-needed information for parents and athletes who want to play at the collegiate level.

Please take a few minutes to complete the enclosed forms for your very top sophomore, junior and senior athletes whom you feel are prepared for this type of competitive environment. We are confident that each coach will recommend only those players he feels are ready for this type of experience. Remember, your players cannot attend unless they are recommended, so please return the enclosed form as soon as possible. We expect that this camp will fill early.

Selected players who register for this experience will:

- Receive instruction at two intensive practice sessions

- Participate in an evening All-Star Game
- Take home a Southern Exposure game jersey
- Receive information regarding NCAA recruitment rules and practices
- Have an individual and team photo package available
- Be videotaped during the game, with copies available to parents upon request

Hotel accommodations are available through the Comfort Inn in Greenville, South Carolina. Contact phone number is for reservations. A block of rooms has been reserved--

This is a tremendous opportunity for your rising athletes to be seen by Division I, II, and III college coaches who will be attending from throughout the region. We look forward to meeting and working with your players in the summer of 2009.

If you have any questions about the Southern Exposure Lacrosse Recruiting Camp, please send them, via email, to southern-exposure@hotmail.com, or phone # 864-654-6604. Please send completed forms, in the enclosed stamped and addressed envelope, to:

Southern Exposure Recruitment Camp
294 Laurel Road
Central SC 29630

The deadline for receipt of your completed forms is May 15, 2009.

-- John Grubb, Frank Mezzanotte, and Ron Cadorette
All-South Hall of Fame Camp Directors &
Founders of Southern Exposure Recruitment Camp

Coaches' Bio Corner:

John Grubb (Director): All-American defenseman at Towson University; 2-time member of All-South Atlantic Lacrosse Team; Head Coach at North Harford HS (Maryland), 300 wins, State Champions 1990, 95; Harford County (Maryland) Lacrosse Coach of the Year 1978, 80, 83, 87, 90, 91, 99; Head Coach of 1985 All-South HS All-Star Team; Head Coach Leukemia All-Metro Team 1988, 91; Towson University Athletic Hall of Fame; All-Metro Coach of the Year 1990; Coach of Maryland Select All-Star Team 1996; Director for the Maryland Lacrosse Coaches' Association; Coach of the Maryland Senior All-Star Lacrosse Team 1999; Co-Director of Harford Lacrosse Camp, Maryland.

Frank Mezzanotte (Director): All-American defenseman at Towson University; 2-time member of All-South Atlantic Lacrosse Team; Head Coach at Edgewood HS (Maryland), State Champions 1984, 85,89; Harford County (Maryland) Coach of the Year 1982, 84, 85, 89; All-Metro (Maryland) Coach of the Year 1983; Former Head Coach of Baltimore Tribe Pro Lacrosse Team; Coach of Leukemia All-Metro Team 1990; Coach of 1989 All-South HS All-Star Team; Towson University Athletic Hall of Fame; Former Head Coach at Harford Community College (Maryland); College Coach of the Year 1994; Co-Director of Harford Lacrosse Camp, Maryland.

Ron Cadorette (Director): 2-time All-American midfielder at Towson University; member of All-South Atlantic Lacrosse Team; player on North-South All-Star Team; member of Mt. Washington (Maryland) Lacrosse Club championship team; Towson University Athletic Hall of Fame; Calvert Hall HS (Baltimore, Maryland) Freshman Lacrosse Coach; Weston Warriors (Florida) Lacrosse Coach 1999-2001; Defensive backs coach at Towson University; All-State tight end, Towson University; Nassau County (New York) Grid Iron 44 member; High School All-County Lacrosse and Football; Nassau County Citizenship Award for Youth of the Year; currently J.L. Mann HS (Greenville, SC) Varsity Lacrosse Coach.